

Worry in a bottle

Write a letter to your worry and send it out to sea.

Dear Worry, (write what your worry has been telling you).

Here's what I know that is actually true. (Write the facts)

You don't get to steer my boat anymore because (a confident closing line) -----

From:

Captain of my own ship.

I'm Captain of my own bottle!